NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PARTY

[Adopted at Cincinnati, June 15, 1876.] When, in the economy of Providence, this land was to be purged of human slavery, and when the strength of the government of the people by the people and for the people was to be demonstrated, the Republican party came into power. Its deeds have passed into hisory, and we look back to them with pride. lory, and we look back to them with prize. Incited by their memories and high sims for the good of our country and mankind, and looking to the future with courage, hope and proce, we, the representatives of the party the National Convention assembled, make the following declaration of principles:

1. The United States of America is a nation, not a league. By the combined working of the national and State governments, under their respective constitutions, the rights of every citizen are secured at home and protected. every citizen are secured at home and protected

2. The Republican party has preserved these governments to the Eundreith anniversary of the nation's birth, and they are now the emaliments of the great truths spoken at its cradie—"that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, among which are life, lib-erty and the pursuit of happiness; that for the attainment of these ends governments have been instanted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed." I ptil these truths are cheerfully obeyed, or, if need be, vigorously enforced, the work of the Republican party is unfinished.

3. The permanent pacification of the South-ern section of the Union, and the complete protection of its citizens in the free enjoyment of all their rights are duties to which the Re-publican party stands sacredly pledged. The sower to provide for the enforcement of the principles embodied in the recent constitutional amendments is in the Congress of the United States, and we declare it to be the selemn obligation of the Legislative and Executive Departments of the Government to ecuive Departments of the Government to put into immediate and vigorous use all their constitutional powers for removing any just causes of discontent on the part of any class, and for securing to every American citizen complete liberty and exact equality in the ex-ercise of all civil, political and private rights. To this end we imperatively demand a Con-gress and a Chief Executive whose courage and fidelity to these duties shall not falter or recall.

4. In the first act of Congress signed by President Grant, the National Government as-sumed to remove any doubts of its purpose to discharge its just obligation to public creditors, and solemnly pledged its faith to make provision, at the earliest practicable moment, for the redemption of United States notes in coin. Commercial prosperity, public morals and the national credit demand that this promise be fulfilled by a continuous and steady progress heads of departments are to make nomina-tions for office, the Senate is to advise and consent to the appointments, and the House of Representatives is to accuse and prosecute faithless officers. The best interests of the public service demand that these distinctions re-pected, and that Senators and Represenatives, who may be judges and accusers, should not dictate appointments to office. The invariable rule for appointments should have vierence to the honesty, lidelity and capacity if the appointees, preferring friends of the arry in power for places where harmony and igor of administration require its policy to be represented, but permitting all others to be filled by persons selected with sole reference to the efficiency of the public service and the right of all citizens to share in the honor of endering faithful service to their country. 6. We rejoice in the quickened conscience of the people concerning political affairs, and will hold all public officers to a rigid responsibility, and engage that the prosecution and punishment of all who betray official trusts shall be speedy, thorough and unsparing.

7. The public school system of the several States is the bulwark of the American Republic, and, with a view to its security and perma-mence, we recommend an amendment to the Constitution of the United States forblading

Constitution of the United States forbidding the application of any public funds or property for the benefit of any schools or institutions under sectarian schools.

S. The revenue necessary for the current expenditures and the obligation of the public debt must be largely derived from duties on importations, which, so far as possible, should be adjusted to security the interest of Assert be adjusted to promote the interest of Ameri-can labor and advance the prosperity of the grants of the public lands to corporations and coropolies, and demand that the national domain be devoted to free homes for the people.

10. It is the imperative duty of the Government to modify existing treaties with European Governments, that the same protection shall be afforded to the adopted American citizen that is given to the native born, and that all necessary laws should be passed to protect mmigrants in the absence of power in the

States for that purpose,

11. It is the immediate duty of Congress to investigate the effect of the immigration and importation of Mongolians upon the moral and material interests of the country. 12. The Republican party recognize with ap-proval the substantial advance recently made oward the establishment of equal rights for women, by the many important amendments effected by Republican Legislatures in the women, by Republican Legislatures in the effected by Republican Legislatures in the laws which concern the personal and property relations of wives, mothers and widows, and y the appointment of women to the superin-endence of education, charities and other hublic trusts. The honest demands of this class of citizens for additional rights and privileges and immunities should be treated with respectful consideration.

13. The Constitution confers upon Congress to The Constitution confers upon Congress sovereign power over the Territories of the United States for their government. In the exercise of this power, it is the right and the duty of Congress to prohibit and extirpate in the Territories that relic of barbarism, polygamy, and we demand such legislation as shall secure this end and the supremacy of American institutions in all the Territories.

14. The plateau which the nation has given

14. The pledges which the nation has given to our soldiers and sailors must be fulfilled. The grateful people will always hold those who partled their lives for the country's presuration in the kindset remembershes ervation in the kindest remembrance. 15. We sincerely deprecate all sectional feeling and tendencies. We therefore note with deep solicitude that the Democratic party counts as its chief hope of scess on the electoral vote of a united South, secured through the efforts of those who were recently arrayed against the nation; we invoke the carnest attention of the country to the grave truth that a access thus, analyzed world. ruth that a success thus achieved would open sectional strife and imperii the national acrost and human rights.

16. We charge the Democratic party as seing the same in character and spirit as when it sympathized with treason; with making its control of the House of Reprensentatives the triumph and the opportunity of the nation's recent fose; with reasserting and applicating in the National Capitol the sentiments of unrepented rebellion; with sending Union soldiers to the rear and promoting Confederate soldiers to the front; with deliberately proposing to repudiate the plighted faith of the Government; with being equally false and inherite unon the overshadowing financial imbeetle upon the overshadowing financial question; with thwarting the ends of justice by its partisan mismanagement and obstruc-tion of investigation: with proving itself, through the period of its ascendancy in the Lower House of Congress, utterly incompetent to administer the Government. We warn the country against trusting a party thus alike unworthy, recreant and incapable, 17. The National Administration National Administration merits ommendation for its honorable work in the management of our domestic and foreign affairs, and President Grant deserves the continued and hearty gratitude of the American people for his patriotism and immense services in war and in peace. Mr. H. R. Steener:

Dran Sin: Though a stranger, I want to inform you what Vegetine has done for me.

Last Christmas Scrofula made its appearance in my system—largely running uteers appearing on me. as follows: One on each of my arms, one on my thigh, which extended to the scat; one on my head, which eat into the skull bone; one on my leaf leg, which became so bad that two physicians came to amputate the Hmb, though upon consultation concluded not to do so, as my whole body was so foll of Serofula; they deemed it advisable to cut the sore, which was painful beyond description, and there was a quart of matter run from this one sore.

The physicians all gave me up to die, and said they could do no more for me. Both of my legs were drawn up to my seat, and it was thought if idig get up again! I would be a cripple for life.

When in the condition I saw Vegetine advertised, and commenced taking it in March, and followed on with it until I had used sixteen bottles, and iths morning I am going to plough corn, a well man. All my lownsmen say it is a miracle to see me around walking and with add when I was enduging such great suffering from that dreadful discase, Scrofula, I prayed the Lord above to take me out of this world, but as Vegetine has restored to me the blessings of health, I desire more than ever to live, that I may be of some service to my fellow-men, and I know of ho better way to ald suffering humaniet than to inclose you this statement of my case, with an earnest hope that you will publish it, and it will afford me pleasure to reply to any communication which I may receive therefrom.

I am, sir, very respectfully. l am, sir, very respectfully,
